

Committed to Enhancing the HIM Profession

For more than a quarter-century, For The Record magazine has been a leading independent resource for industry news and information for HIM professionals. For The Record has earned the respect and loyalty of professionals for our in-depth reporting on relevant and timely subjects, including coding, transcription, clinical documentation, EMRs/EHRs, technological innovations, and compliance and privacy concerns.

Advertisers and recruiters seeking to educate and inform influential professionals have a powerful and reliable partner in For The Record. Our media network offers a range of channels proven effective for delivering key messages, information, and career opportunities to the nation's community of health information professionals.

Anchored by our flagship print publication, the For The Record media network can showcase your product, program, service, or professional opportunity 10 times a year via our mobile-ready digital edition, which is posted on our highly targeted website, www.ForTheRecordmag.com. Our monthly e-Newsletter delivers timely news, research, and information, as well as banner ads, directly to the inboxes of professionals who subscribe. We continue to build engaged and growing social media audiences on Facebook and Twitter, where we deliver content and drive traffic via direct links back to our digital edition and website.

A powerful HIM recruitment tool for decades, For The Record offers recruiters multiple channels to reach qualified and credentialed professionals, including print display ads, web banners, and online postings on our popular niche job board, AlliedHealthCareers.com.

For the Record's audience comprises HIM professionals including:

- RHIA and RHIT professionals
- HIM/HIT directors/administrators
